Football

The Conemaugh Iron Horses completed the 1945 football season with two games won against five losses.

The schedule was a tough one and with the exception of Windber, Conemaugh Township, and Portage, the games were played in the Point Stadium.

Whether we win or whether we lose Conemaugh will be in there fighting from year to year. Next year we hope to have an even more successful season and we hope the student body and faculty will help support the team, as they have done in the past, with that well-known Conemaugh spirit.

Cheerleader's

Ann Slododzian, Gwen Teeter, Magdalene Kuzmiak, Martha Wrywas, Stella Lawerick, Miss Waite (advisor).

The Conemaugh High School Iron Horses wound up their 1945-46 basketball season with the best record of the greater Johnstown area—nineteen wins and three losses. After taking the West Central League Championship, the Horses defeated Homer City in the District VI P. I. A. A. semi-finals. They went on only to be defeated by Altoona in the finals. Previous defeats were from Conemaugh Township and Johnstown Catholic High Schools.

The Conemaugh Junior Varsity basketball team completed its basketball season with the splendid record of fourteen victories against two losses. The J. V. quintet scored a total of four hundred seventy-nine points while holding the opponents down to three hundred nine. Westmont delivered the defeat in the South Fork Junior Varsity Tournament. The Ponies then played Richland in a consolation game and defeated them to take third place in the tournament.

At the beginning of the year the Conemaugh High School Band consisted of 56 members. The band was under the direction of Mrs. Leaf for the first semester. Shortly after the second semester began, Mr. James Bruno returned to his former position as music director.

The 14 senior members of the band will receive sweaters when they graduate.

Several members of the band also play for other organizations such as the Sons of the Legion and the Polish Band. Virginia Parko has the honor of being a member of the Pennsylvania All State Band.

Next year the band is expected to have 60 or more members. New hats will be purchased. Let us hope its success will continue.

The Conemaugh High School Orchestra consists of approximately 20 members, and it is under the supervision of Mr. Bruno. Many people have had the pleasure of hearing the orchestra play at various events.

To have a good orchestra requires the whole hearted cooperation and work of the members, especially those who play string instruments, as the string section is the foundation.

Roy Kelly was elected Chairman, and Gwen Teeter Secretary.

The primary function of the Student Council is assisting in the development of good citizenship. In order to promote good citizenship, we must have a knowledge of the theory of democracy, sentiments of law and order, intelligent respect for authority, increasing self-direction, leadership, cooperation, and morale.

The Student Council is a motivated and functional miniature democracy; one which represents student interests and activities for all students, and a plan which more closely resembles adult democracy than anything now to be found inside the school. It is in short, a practice school of democracy, a laboratory for citizenship.

Industrial Arts

Industrial arts teaches the use of tools and machinery. If a student has skillful hands he should take the Practical Arts Course. He is taught the use of the more complex machines for the making of projects. He also receives training in wood craft and metal craft. This course also gives him the opportunities to show his ability in the completion of his many simple cabinet skills.

One of the many projects that was completed was the speakers stand. It was presented by Mr. Weaver to the school during the Christmas chapel. The boys showed their skill in the handling of the lathe and other machines that were being used on this project.

The purpose of the Conemaugh Hi-Y is to create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character.

This year our meetings consist of the Bible Study, "Teen Topics," a business meeting and an activities period. The meetings are held every Monday evening at 7:30 in the building next to the Conemaugh P. R. R. Y. M. C. A.

This building was purchased by the Y. M. C. A. as a youth center. The necessary repairs were made by our group and now, every Saturday evening at 7:30, the young people gather for entertainment. There are two games of ping-pong, a dart board, a game of checkers, a shuffle board, a victrola, a piano, and some magazines. Gradually our allotment of games will increase. We sincerely hope this will become a real place for "Teen-Agers."

Retail Selling Club

On October 17, 1945 the senior retail selling class organized the Retail Selling and Merchandising Club which consists of thirteen members. Its purpose is to investigate different plants and stores and compare their prices and their management. The class and club work together by giving weekly reports on selling and merchandising programs.

R. S. M. has been profitable and we hope that next year's seniors will continue the Retail Selling and Merchandising Club.

The officers are as follows:

Advisor ..... Mr. Courter
President ..... Steve Popp
Vice President ..... Olga Fetsik
Secretary ..... Stella Lawerick
Treasurer ..... Elaine Placky

The Commercial Club

Another club has been successfully organized this year in Conemaugh High School. With the approval of the majority of the members of the club and its faculty adviser, Miss Dawson, it was named the Commercial Club. As the title suggests, it is comprised of commercial students only.

At the second weekly meeting of the club, officers were elected by secret ballot. As a result of the election, the following pupils became leaders of the club:

President ..... Helen Salem
Vice President ..... Mary Kemp
Recording Secretary ..... Erline Watts
Correspondence Secretary ..... Mary Jane Allison
Treasurer ..... Emma Pingatore

As the affairs of the club progressed, the commercial pupils decided to tackle the job of printing a magazine. The title of the magazine was "Greetings." Issues of the magazine were distributed to all the high school students. Delores Gossard and Bob Reese were the appointed Editors, and Irene Podoletz and John Bitsko, the Co-Editors.

More projects were discussed and planned by the members of the Commercial Club as the year rolled on.

The secretarial, clerical, and retail selling students wish to extend their appreciation and thanks to the faculty and the pupils who have helped to make their club a success.

Camera Club

This year was a hard year for the club with film so hard to get in the earlier part of the year. The club was just organized this year. It consists of no more than eight members; all are seniors except one, a junior, so that there will be an experienced leader for next year.

The members of this year's camera club are: Steve Popp, Thomas Panchisin, Robert Reese, Jack Pender, Francis Parks, Cramer Riblett, and Robert Rogers.

OFFICERS

President	Cramer Riblett
Vice President	JackPender
Secretary	Steve Popp
Treasurer	Robert Rogers

You will see some of the snaps done by the camera club, in the yearbook.

At the end of this year the Camera Club of 1946 will graduate, leaving its Vice President, Jack Pender, behind to guide the Camera Club of "47". And so to the Camera Club and Jack, good luck and good pictures.

Art Club

OFFICERS

The Art Club was successful in getting a room in which they can carry on their work. The new room is 103.

The work done so far includes original designs in charcoal and pastel. The Seniors are working on posters, scenery and programs for the Senior Class Play.

Meetings are held every Thursday after school. Miss Wissinger is the club's advisor. Vice President, Olga Roman, will automatically become president next year.

Varsity C

SECOND ROW—Mr. Rubbo, Paul Yewcic, Herbert Thompson, William Moore, Walter Motak, Paul Makuchan, Edward Standa, Mr. Meckley.

THIRD ROW—Robert Pender, Jack Pender, William Lucas, Robert Fetterman, Walter Kisslak, Donald Eichenser, Ronald Beyrooty, Alex Mesaros.

The Varsity "C" organization started the year with seven members. They are as follows:

President ..... Carl Ceglar
Vice President ..... George Kuzmiak
Secretary ..... Frank Feist
Treasurer ..... Charles Tumosky

Theodore Mateleska, Walter Motak, and Paul Yewcic. Paul was the only freshman earning a Varsity letter and thereby admitted to the organization.

Each year the club promotes activities for the purpose of buying the necessary awards for athletes who have met the necessary technical requirements and also have been given the proper recommendation by the High School Principal and Coach of Athletics. This year the sale of pencils added considerably to the profits besides the income from the Alumni, Junior High School, and Intramural games.

Eight lettermen will graduate this year; each one receiving a sweater and a letter. A total of 27 Varsity "C" awards will be made at the close of this school year. A group of 14 boys will be left to form the club next year. The High School Principal and the Coach serve as advisers to the club.

GOSH! WE'RE SENIORS! WE HATE TO LEAVE—ALL THAT HARD WORK, THE WAY WE TEASED OUR TEACHERS, ALL OUR ACTIVITIES, OUR ATHLETICS. IT WAS FUN —BUT WE MUST GO FORWARD ON OUR "MARCH OF TIME."

Class Prophecy

During the year 1950 Freda Corey and I visited a famous fortune teller in Spain. Her name was Madame Zo-anee. As we entered her dimly lighted studio, a sense of mystery engulfed us. In a daze we seated ourselves on a comfortable sofa. The curtains at the opposite side of the room parted and an old woman dressed in a Gypsy costume appeared. In a low voice she introduced herself as Madame Zo-anee. After the proper formalities were over, Freda and I made known the purpose of our visit, which was to learn the fate of our 1946 classmates. Madame Zo-anee bade us to sit at the table on which her crystal ball rested. Then she seated herself across from us and we gazed into the crystal ball.

As the mist clears I see two nurses walking down a hospital corridor. I exclaim, "Why that's Lois Peyton and Kathleen Lego." Madame Zo-anee told us they are working at the Bellevue Hospital in New York.

The scene changes and we see a huge stage on which a line of chorus girls are dancing. Freda and I see Jean Briggs, Irene Podoletz, Dorothy Koss and Helen Salem among the girls. The feature male dancer is Cramer Riblett. The music for the dance is provided by William Berchin and his Hepcats, with Pete Fesovich and Margaret Rudge as featured vocalists. Carl Ceglar, who is also in the orchestra is the tuba player and the pianist is John Bitsko.

Now we see a passenger plane flying on its route to Paris. The pilot is Nick Baresky and Roy Brady is co-pilot. Mary Starchak and Elaine Placky are the stewardesses. On the same plane we see a happy couple, Ted Mateleska and Audrey Knepper, who are on their honeymoon.

We now see the political world. David Spanogle is the minister of propaganda and his assistants are Albert Gabrysh, Raymond Haupt and Pete Hart. Roy Kelly and Joe Trohanowsky are secret agents. Their secretaries are Cecilia Nowacki and Mary Jane Allison. Milan Jurich, Harry Dornheim and Don Rudge run the elevators in the building where these men have their offices.

A brighter picture appears on the crystal ball. We see a beauty contest taking place. The local contestants are Lurlene Anthony, Mary Alice Candler, Betty Davis, Lorraine Snider, Olga Fetsik, Stella Lawerick, Betty Mateyko and Ruby Brumbaugh. The judges are Frank Feist, Dean Gillen and Bob Griffith. Swimming in the near-by ocean are the well-known swimming champions. Mary Catherine Bittner, Jayne Gillen and Geraldine Hagerich. Serving as life guards at the same beach are Andy Kozak, Charles Tumosky and Harold Lydic. Photographers can be seen swarming the beach for pin-up girls. We recognize four of the photographers as Frank Koval, George Kuzmiak, Roger Mackal and Paul Makuchan. They succeed in taking pictures of Melba Sheldon, Ann Packech, Julia Petriska and Twila Britton.

Another scene comes into view. Freda and I gasp with wonder at the beautiful jungle scene.

Class Phrophecy

Six hunters are approaching and as I gaze I notice the faces of Tom Panchisin, Steve Popp, Francis Parks, Robert Reese, Robert Rogers and Ellsworth Smith. Madame Zo-anee remarked, "They are hunting for elephants and other jungle animals." Olga Papaila is in the vicinity painting a scene. She is now one of our well known artists.

Next we see a street scene. Elva Hartill is going for a stroll with her favorite beau. We also see Erline Watts and Dorothy Jackson on their way to work. They are co-owners of a beauty salon. Dorothy Jones is their head operator.

The picture changes and a roller skating rink comes into view. We see Mary Kemp, and Delores Gossard demonstrating their skill to a huge audience. Janet Craig, Marjorie Johnson and Jean Ann Hunt sell tickets at the box office. Irene Malenich is publicity agent for Mary and Dolores.

Now the educational world comes into the picture. At the University of Pittsburgh Catherine Markley, Shirley Marsh and Helen Makuchan are students of law. Irene Maruhnich is studying to become a doctor. Elizabeth Matson is gym instructor of the university. Working in a near-by cafeteria we see the familiar faces of Emma Pingatore, Olga Slobodzian and Margaret Stambaugh. Mary Poziak is the owner of the cafeteria and Billie Lou Riddell is the manager.

The next scene is in Massachusetts. Irene Krisko is canoeing on a lake with a handsome young man. Mary Petriska, Margaret Pristas, and Emily Swete are lying on the beach.

Madame Zo-anee spoke "The next scene you see will be the last." A book appears on the crystal, "The Eighth Cross" writen by Eva Kovalchik and Freda Corey.

Class History

Four years ago in the latter part of August, the Seniors of 1945-46 began their freshman year of school. After the excitement of being high school students wore off, the class settled down and elected their officers. The students chosen to get them off to a good start were: Curtis Hamel, President; Roy Kelly, Vice President; Betty Davis, Secretary; and Olga Fetsik, Treasurer. The main accomplishment in the first year was getting acquainted with the out-of-town students.

After three months vacation the former freshmen returned to school. The officers for the sophomore year were: Glen Lewis, President; Clarence Ickes, Vice President; Betty Davis, Secretary and Jean Ann Hunt, Treasurer. In sophomore English the students wrote their autobiographies.

As juniors the pupils were coming nearer to their goal. The officers were: Bob Reese, President; Frank Feist, Vice President; Betty Davis, Secretary and Ted Mateleska, Treasurer. The juniors were very busy with school activities. Dances and skating parties were held. The juniors also sold magazine subscriptions. Their hard work was rewarded by a successful prom at the Masonic Temple.

The students' ambitions to be seniors were finally achieved, and it was a joyous return to school for them in the fall of 1945. The officers elected for the last year in high school were: Roy Kelly, President; John Bitsko, Vive President; Shirley Marsh, Secretary and Charles Tumosky, Treasurer. All during the school term, the seniors could be seen hustling along the halls and calling meetings concerning their class book and class rings. They ordered their namecards quite early and succeeded in creating a state of confusion in the school for weeks afterward. The seniors were happy to occupy the front seats in the auditorium. The annual trip to Ebensburg was the cause of much planning and excitement. The main event for the seniors was the class play. "Huckleberry Finn" by Samuel Clemens. The play was directed by Miss Martin. The students with dramatic ability were chosen for the casts. The play was a success and a fair profit was made.

As graduation approaches the seniors look forward to it with mingled joy and regret. They are now ready to face life by following their various careers. Their happy and profitable school days are almost ended.

Junior Class activities began early in anticipation of the one big event of the year, the Junior-Senior Prom. The usual activities include magazine sales, skating parties, dances and bake sales. Careful planning and cooperation by officers and committee with the class and teacher advisors is a positive necessity for a successful program by the Junior Class. We have had unusual success this past year.

During the first month of school the Sophomore class held a wiener roast at Wissinger's. The weather was not favorable so the few who came enjoyed an evening of fun in the house.

In anticipation of events in our Junior year, a meeting was held to discuss ways and means of raising money. Dues of ten cents a month for each Sophomore was decided upon.

It was the first day of school and the halls were jammed with 122 bewildered freshmen. The first social event of the year was a wiener roast at Feist's farm on October 4th. Later in the month we enjoyed a Halloween party in the gym.

December the 19th was a very cold day but it didn't stop any of the freshmen pupils who were going to the skating party at Skateland. Having such an enjoyable time, we decided upon having a Valentine Party in February. A wiener roast is now being planned for May and another year of work and recreation is anticipated.
